In Memory of JoyceAnn Baker

JoyceAnn was loved by so many both people and canines, she was a huge part of our herding community in Oklahoma and was one of the best herding trial secretaries in the country. She made each and every exhibitor feel important and special, she was so kind, patient and encouraging with everyone, and she especially loved the newbies!

JoyceAnn remarked several times how much she enjoyed seeing folks sitting in the yard under the trees waiting for their turn to run their dogs, always some good conversations and laughter, so in her memory we dedicated a shade tree in 2017 which was purchased thru the support of many who loved her and were touched by her every loving kindness!

An award is also presented each year for the dog/handler team who has the highest score in Herding Started and the handler has not trialed in levels higher than the started level.
