Robin Penland-Elliott brings over 40 years of herding experience to the AKC program. Her judging career began with 4H in the 1970's and expanded in 1994 to USBCHA and AHBA. She has been an AKC herding judge since 2003. Her decades of judging and training more than 60 different herding breeds lends herself a deep appreciation and broad understanding of the different herding styles, from Border Collies and Australian Shepherds to Icelandic Sheepdogs and Hungarian Pumik. Robin is a passionate teacher who stresses the importance of the dog/handler relationship to achieve the best possible results. Robin is delighted to share her many years of expertise and commitment to good stockmanship and good sportsmanship in her role as AKC Herding Field Representative.
